Important information to help you choose and configure your motorhome

Buying a motorhome is a major decision, and there are many factors to take into account.

Therefore, before finalising your order, it is important to check that your chosen configuration allows you to carry the intended occupants, luggage and accessories without exceeding the vehicle's technical and legal limits.

You can find all the necessary information here.

■ GENERAL INFORMATION

The technical data, equipment and specifications included in this catalogue correspond to the information available at the time of going to press: August 2026.

BENIMAR may introduce technical developments, product improvements or changes to equipment before the order is finalised. Specifications may also vary depending on the country of sale, the chassis, the engine, the transmission, supplier availability and the selected configuration.

Before the order is finalised, the model, base vehicle, engine, transmission, weights, approved seating capacity, standard equipment, packages and requested options must be confirmed in writing.

The dimensions given correspond to the reference configuration and may vary due to manufacturing tolerances, the base vehicle, the suspension, the tyres and any fitted equipment or accessories.

Driver assistance systems are designed to assist the driver and do not replace the driver's attention, control or responsibility. Their availability and operation may vary depending on the base vehicle, model, market, software and selected configuration.

This catalogue is for information purposes only and does not replace the order, the contract, the certificate of conformity, the user manual or the vehicle's official documentation. All of the above is without prejudice to the rights legally recognised for consumers and users, and to the binding nature that may apply to any offer, promotion or advertisement in accordance with the applicable regulations.

For any further clarification or to check the compatibility of a configuration, please consult an authorised BENIMAR dealer.

Up-to-date information is available at www.benimar.es.

The reproduction of this catalogue, in whole or in part, is prohibited without the prior written authorisation of BENIMAR.
